

HATIKVA

חשמונאים

List

Pninit Avrech-Hevroni

Pninit Avrech-Hevroni, 39, married to Yair, mother of four wonderful children: Yogev, Omer, Harel and Yoveli. Has a BA in Management and Economics, and currently works as a business development manager in insurance and finance. Active in the leadership of the Elementary school in Hashmonaim for the past few years.

"Hashmonaim is my home and the future for my children. "Hatikva" list aims to identify and promote the needs of young families in the community, to ensure senior residents, and to invest in our amazing youth. My wish is to see these goals realized with the election of "Hatikva" for the Yeshuv Vaad."

Leah Madai

Leah Madai, 62, married to Shalom, and mother of five daughters. Has a MA in Educational Administration from Bar Ilan University, and worked as a teacher and an educational director. Today, retired and volunteering in several areas: Board member of the Binyamin Beit-El Golden age Association, "Emuna" board member in Modiin, and founder of the Golden Age Club in Hashmonaim, in cooperation with the women of the community.

"I believe the retired population is a cornerstone of our yeshuv, and therefore a worthy cause to invest in, allowing them to be a model to the next generation."

Eldad Sommer

Eldad Sommer, 41, married to Tamar and father of Ayelet, Talia, Ofri and Gilad. Resident of the yeshuv for 14 years. Has a BA in Economics and Business Administration and a Master's degree in Business Administration (MBA). Currently a senior economist at the Airports Authority. Active in the school leadership and a board member of the Rimon synagogue.

"I believe there is a need for new people in our community's Vaad, who can lead us in areas related to each and every one of us. I am proud to be a part of this process, and would like to take part mainly in finance, beautifying and caring for the environmental aspects of our yeshuv."

Uzi Asayag

Uzi Asayag, 43, married to Hadar, father of four children: Elayi, Avisham, Eliya and Emuna. Works in the marketing department of the "Berman group", active at the Sfardi Synagogue and the Chessed organization of the yeshuv.

"I see myself continuing to work for the sake of the families, children, youth and senior residents in our yeshuv. The "Hatikva" list is, for me, an opportunity to ensure the welfare of our local residents and strengthen our community".

Hagai Tam

Chairman of "Hatikva" list, running for the Hashmonaim Vaad

Hagai Tam, 34, is the chairman of the "Hatikva" list, running for the Hashmonaimvaad. Married to Shira and father of three daughters: Tal-or, Shachar, and Shoham. Has a BA in Political Science from Bar Ilan University. For the past 5 years has been working as the mazkir of the yeshuv Neria, and a member of the community secretaries' council.

"I believe that we have the ability to make a real difference in our community. I have extensive municipal knowledge and experience, and excellent connections with the Moatza (the Binyamin regional council) The members on the "Hatikva" list are caring and highly motivated people, with experience in management, economics, education and security - all required for the development and advancement of our community.

Yoel Lipschitz

Yoel Lipschitz, 45, married to Michal, and father of six children. A certified Advocate, with a BA in Economics and Law and a Masters in Business Administration. Worked for the public sector for over 17 years, Last position being a Deputy Director General in the Ministry of Health.

"I decided to join the "Hatikva" list because it consists of residents representing all segments of the community, who are motivated to act and bring about a positive change in our community. I plan to use my experience especially to improve public areas of our community and to promote other important projects listed on our platform".

Avichai Young

Avichai Young, 30, married to Racheli and father of Hodaya and Ayelet. Has a BA in education and a teaching certificate, a BA in psychology, and currently a clinical psychology graduate student at Bar-Ilan University. Grew up in Hashmonaim, and is the representative of the young couples in the "Htikva" list.

"I believe it is in the yeshuv's best interest to encourage the young couples in our community to build their homes in Hashmonaim. This includes the development of a vibrant young community, opening a day care center, after school programs, and of course - finding an appropriate solution for affordable housing in the yeshuv."

Elchanan Nachshoni

Elechanan Nachshoni, 37, married to Rinat, father of Avishalom, Adi, Oriya and Noa. Teaches Torah and Talmud in high schools. Has a MA in Talmud and Educational Administration from Tel Aviv University. In the past, served as the community youth coordinator for seven years. During this period he designed and defined the field of work of this position, which served as a model for all the communities in Binyamin.

"I believe that education and the youth are the main reason we live in a communal yeshuv. We must empower our youth and understand their needs with respect, love and responsibility."

Shlomit Furmansky

38, married to Shmuel, mother of four lovely children. Has a BA in early childhood education and non-formal education, and a teaching certificate. Has been a first and second grade teacher for the past 15 years.

"The "Hatikva" list is the only one that can lead to real change in our community. I believe that focusing on the yishuv children and youth will enable them to grow with the values and traditions we hold dear."